Antisemitism: An Introduction

At its most basic level, antisemitism is a “certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred” rhetorically and physically. Antisemitism often charges “the Jews” with conspiring to harm humanity and is used to blame “the Jews” for “why things go wrong.”

The word “antisemitism” was coined in 1879 by Wilhelm Marr, a German ultra-nationalist and white supremacist. Marr’s form of racist antisemitism culminated in the Holocaust, when Nazi Germany murdered 6 million Jews, along with many millions of others. His term is now used retroactively to describe centuries of belief and behavior that led to physical violence, discrimination, and marginalization against Jews across Europe, the Middle East, and elsewhere.

Unfortunately, neither Nazi ideology nor antisemitism died when Germany was defeated in WWII. Today, antisemitism is resurgent in Europe, the United States, and parts of the Muslim world. It comes from all quarters: the far-right and far-left in the West and some leading institutions and regimes in the Middle East.

According to the ADL’s Global 100 study, the world’s highest levels of antisemitism can be found in the Middle East. Across the region, Jews and Israelis are frequently depicted in images and words that are nearly identical to Nazi propaganda. This is no accident.

In the following pages, we will show the similarities between Nazi propaganda and modern antisemitism in the Middle East and detail how Nazis directly influenced modern Middle Eastern attitudes toward Jews.

The Nazi Roots Of Modern Antisemitism In The Middle East

In the 1930s, Nazi Germany began cultivating radical Arab nationalists and Islamists, many of whom were already antisemitic. A number of these Arab nationalists came to support Hitler, and dedicated themselves to his cause. Chief among them was Palestinian leader Haj Amin al-Husseini. He and hundreds of Palestinians lived in Germany during the war, as he formed an alliance with the leaders of the Third Reich. He made regular radio broadcasts of Nazi antisemitism to the Arabic-speaking world, and recruited Bosnian Muslims into two SS divisions. After the war, he returned to the Middle East and led the violent campaign to prevent Israel’s establishment. This led to the 1948 war started by the Arab side, which lost. Meanwhile, other Nazis also fled and ended up working for Arab governments spreading antisemitic propaganda.

Today, the Nazi-style mixture of medieval and modern antisemitic imagery — and the depiction of Jews as a diabolic world force intent on global domination — saturate the Middle East. This racism is destructive for Arabs and Israelis alike. It has been and remains a central obstacle to a just and lasting peace.

While the antisemitic images and words that follow may seem preposterous to the rational mind, they nonetheless have deadly power and must be taken seriously.

“At first the claims of the propaganda were so impudent that people thought it insane; later it got on people’s nerves; and in the end, it was believed.”

—Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf
“The Jew is the parasite of humanity. He can be a parasite for an individual person, a social parasite for whole peoples, and the world parasite of humanity.”
—Nazi Propagandist G.G. Otto, The Jew as World Parasite (Der Jude als Weltparasit)

“[T]he infectious microbe... spreads wherever... a remaining shred of the Talmud can be found or where a Jewish rabbi takes a seat.”
—Hezbollah General Secretary Hassan Nasrallah, Al-Manar TV, May 1998

“The Jewish danger will be eliminated only when Jewry throughout the world has ceased to exist.”
—Nazi Propagandist Julius Streicher, Der Stürmer, 1942

“This barbaric, wolflke & infanticidal regime of Israel which spares no crime has no cure but to be annihilated.”
—Ayatollah Khameini, Supreme Leader of Iran, July 23, 2014

“If they (Jews) all gather in Israel, it will save us the trouble of going after them worldwide.”
—Hezbollah General Secretary Hassan Nasrallah, Daily Star, October 2002
The Nazis

“The cause of the world’s misfortune, however, will be forever eliminated only when Jewry in its entirety is destroyed.”

– Nazi Propagandist Julius Streicher, Der Stürmer, 1941

“The secret goals of the Jewish people are...in the ‘Protocols of the Elders of Zion’ [which] contain the Jewish plan for world conquest.”

– Nazi Propagandist Julius Streicher, Der Stürmer, 1933

Today’s Middle Eastern Leaders

“There is no war going on anywhere, without having their [the Jews’] finger in it.... [The Jews] were behind the French Revolution [and] the Communist revolution....They were behind World War I....They were behind World War II.”

– Hamas Charter Article 22

“The Zionist plan is limitless.... Their plan is embodied in the ‘Protocols of the Elders of Zion.’”

– Hamas Charter Article 32

“The international hegemony, motivated by the dangerous Protocols of Zion, seeks to promote deviant and unworthy models for world young generations.”

– Ayatollah Khamenei, Supreme Leader of Iran, October 18, 2011

Post WW II:
This transfer of Nazi racism was not an accident.

After World War II, many prominent Nazis fled Europe and were welcomed in the Middle East. After 1953, President Gamal Abdel Nasser absorbed about 2,000 of them into Egypt, where they worked in the secret service, directed anti-Israel propaganda, and translated antisemitic texts into Arabic, such as the forgery The Protocols of the Elders of Zion. Other Nazis became journalists in countries such as Syria. Some prominent examples include:

The Protocols of the Elders of Zion is a fabricated antisemitic text purporting to describe a Jewish plan for global domination. It was first published in Russia in 1903, translated into multiple languages, and disseminated internationally in the early part of the 20th century. The Nazis used the Protocols as propaganda against Jews despite having been exposed as fraudulent by The Times of London in 1921.
